2.5. OBSERVATION.

To note that:

- i. The committee still received applications from suppliers after the deadline of 5th June, 2024. As a continuous process the suppliers were evaluated using the same evaluation criteria.
- ii. Most of the suppliers had some of their statutory documents i.e. Trade license, Tax compliance and ACPPO certificate expiring during the time of evaluation.
- iii. For category 9 and 31 suppliers ought to be asked to attach a copy of license from Energy and Petroleum Regulatory Authority (EPRA) and Kenya Medical Laboratory Technicians and Technologists Board respectively.
- iv. Category 42 – Provision of laundry services and category 43 – provision of courier services did not have any applicants.

2.6. RECOMMENDATIONS.

To note that:

The committee recommended the above listed candidates who were responsive in the mandatory requirements stage and also scored 70 points and above in the technical evaluation stage for registration as suppliers for the Financial Years 2024-2026.

2.7. ADJOURNMENT.

To note that;

There being no other business the meeting was adjourned at 4:30 p.m. on 27th June 2024.
